Reciprocity

What is reciprocity?

Reciprocity is when an educator wants to transfer an out of state certificate to Nebraska.

Does Nebraska Have Reciprocity with other States?

No, Nebraska no longer has reciprocity with other states.

What do you require of Teachers & Administrator's that have an out of state certificate and want to hold certification in Nebraska?

- All candidates must meet specific Nebraska academic & state requirements
- The out of state certificate does not transfer by itself; use of the out of state certificate and other documents provided by the candidate is used to judge what documents that will be required for a Nebraska certificate
- Nebraska does not recognize certificates or endorsements earned through testing only or Alternative Preparation Programs that are not state approved
