

Nebraska BLAST!

Building Lasting AfterSchool Teams

Frequently Asked Questions

What is Nebraska BLAST!?

Nebraska BLAST! is a unique opportunity for informal educators, classroom teachers, and community partners working with students who attend 21st Century Community Center (21st CCLC) programs to participate as a team in workshops focused on student-centered learning content. Professional development is delivered by local, regional, or statewide content experts. The implementation is then planned by the team for the afterschool setting during the school year and/or summer.

Who can be involved in Nebraska BLAST!?

Teams that include 21st CCLC project directors, site coordinators, afterschool staff, certified teachers, and/or community partners are invited to attend ongoing Nebraska BLAST! workshops.

What is expected of those participating in Nebraska BLAST! workshops?

It is expected that those who participate in Nebraska BLAST! workshops will work together to implement the content with students in the afterschool and/or summer 21st CCLC program. Workshop participants will receive a free mylearning account for accessing information and resources.

How can I find out about upcoming Nebraska BLAST! workshops?

Upcoming workshop opportunities will be posted on the Nebraska BLAST! website.

How can I register for a Nebraska BLAST! workshop?
