

2011-2012 ECCOA Leadership Series

From Ordinary to Extraordinary

CORE COMPETENCY: PROFESSIONALISM AND LEADERSHIP

When: Wednesday, April 18, 2012
8:45 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
Where: ESU #3 Calamus Platte Room
6949 S 110th St, 68128 (110th & Harrison)
Cost: $40.00/person (includes lunch)

This session will reveal four basic principles that will help bring fresh energy and creativity to your life and work:

- how to make a real difference every day
- how to become more successful by building strong relationships
- how to create real value for others without spending a penny, and
- how to constantly reinvent yourself

At the end of this activity and discussion filled day, participants will realize that the mission every day should be to continually create new  Fred FACTOR value for those you live and work with through dedication, passion and creativity. Based on the book The Fred Factor by Mark Sanborn.

If you have questions or need more info, contact ECCOA Coordinator Jennifer Haggart at jhaggart@esu3.org or 402-597-4991. Registrations must be received by April 11! Send completed registration form and payment (checks payable to ESU #3) to:

ECCOA Leadership Series
6949 S 110th Street
Omaha NE 68128

Brought to you by ECCOA, the Early Childhood Consortium of the Omaha Area, the Early Learning Connection partnership supporting training, technical assistance and consultation for those who work with children birth to age eight in Cass, Douglas, Sarpy and Washington counties. ECCOA is supported in part by a grant from federal CCDF and other federal and state funds administered by the Nebraska Department of Education.

ECCOA Leadership Series Registration

Name: _____

Where You Work: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

____ If you have special dietary needs or require an accommodation for a disability, please check here and we will contact you.