

Think-Pair-Share: Goal Writing

Definition of "GOAL"

Inappropriate Goal

Appropriate Goal

Goals: Appropriate or Inappropriate?

(Assume 1st year L2 student; 45 min. class periods)

Goal Statements	A	I
By the end of the year, I will participate in a simple conversation in L2 on an everyday topic.
By the end of this week, I will write an easily understood e-mail in L2 describing my daily routine.
I will speak fluently (by the end of this chapter/unit).
I will learn about foods (by the end of this chapter/unit).
I will ask Cecilia out using only L2 (by the end of this chapter/unit).
I will say “Hi” to Cecilia using only L2 (by the end of this chapter/unit).
Students will describe the contents of their backpacks using only L2 (by the end of this chapter/unit).
I will get an “A” on my test (at the end of this chapter/unit).
I will say how tall my brother is (by the end of this chapter/unit).
I will have a conversation with my L2-speaking friend (by the end of this chapter/unit).
I will know the names of the items in my bedroom in L2 (by the end of this chapter/unit).
I will correctly interpret a cooking show in L2 in order to replicate the recipe presented (by the end of this chapter/unit).		