Career Opportunities & Professions Seminar October 6, 2011

WHO: Students & Professionals
 WHAT: COPS 2011
 WHEN: Oct. 6, 2011 @ 9:30 a.m.
 WHERE: Northeast Community College
 Norfolk, Nebraska

WHY:
 High school and college students who are interested in learning about a career in local, county, or state law enforcement should attend the COPS Career Opportunities and Professions Seminar hosted by the Nebraska Community College Criminal Justice Educator's Association.

This year's seminar features federal law enforcement agencies including the ATF, DEA, FBI, ICE, and the U.S. Marshal Service. To allow for maximum interaction participants will be divided into small groups and rotated through the presentations and demonstrations. The registration fee includes a morning snack, sack lunch with beverage, and afternoon snack. Attendees will receive a certificate of completion at the conclusion of the seminar and the opportunity to win door prizes.

If you are interested in pursuing a career in criminal justice, this conference is for you! Check out the COPS website at www.cccneb.edu/COPS for pictures and more information.
