

Tuesday, August 25. We had over 25 people registered and many who were able to tune in live to the event.

The next webinar is scheduled for Tuesday, September 22 from 6:00-7:00 PM CST. This session will focus on information from our commodity partners and how their resources can be utilized in the FACS classroom.

For more information about all of the webinars or to register visit <https://goo.gl/cQXTPE>

CTSO Updates

HOSA

HOSA is starting another great year and is in position to continue growing for the 2015-2016 school year. Be sure to check out all of the great events on tap for the year by visiting www.nebraskahosa.org.

Educators Rising

Say goodbye to what you know as FEA and welcome the new Educators Rising. This CTSO led by Nancy Burhart cultivates highly skilled educators by guiding young people on a path to becoming accomplished teachers beginning in high school. Upcoming events are November 10 at The Education Expo in Omaha and State Leadership Conference on February 25th in Lincoln. For more information check out the new website www.educatorsrisingnebraska.org.

FCCLA

FCCLA is excited to kick off the 2015-2016 school year with some great new offerings for our members. Over the summer, partnerships have continued to develop which will offer additional scholarship and recognition opportunities for members. In addition, the Board of Directors has approved the Strategic Plan 2020 which outlines the efforts of the organization over the next 5 years.

Finally, we would like to recognize our New Chapter Grant recipients who have taken advantage of incentives to begin new FCCLA chapters.

Congratulations and welcome to:

- Aurora High School, Chelsey Greene, Adviser
- Lincoln North Star High School, Camelle Kinney, Adviser
- Grand Island Northwest High School, Tamara Nelson, Adviser

For more information about FCCLA visit our website at www.nebraskafccla.org.

Listserv

See what you're missing

Listervs provide an excellent opportunity to network with professionals from around the state, get the latest updates, and share great resources. The following are two listservs you might want to be a part of.

FACS

This listserv is dedicated to Family and Consumer Sciences content for the classroom and beyond. This where you would share resources, ask for new ideas, and gain support of a variety of things related to FACS.

FCCLA

This is your one-stop shop for updates and resources related to FCCLA including curriculum integration and updates.

To join either of these listservs simply email Allison Kreifels or Whitney Antons. You will receive a confirmation email once you are signed up that will give information on how to send items through the listserv.

Making it Stick

Purpose

This webinar series will help teachers integrate reading and writing skills across all disciplines. Each tool was selected to help students on their NeSA-R and NeSA-W and also to provide a teaching strategy for a classroom teacher

Close Reading

September 14, 2015

Engage students in the practice of careful analysis to find the deeper meaning of a text.

RAFT

October 5, 2015

Task students with writing that reflects real-world experiences and contexts rather than simply writing for the teacher.

All webinars can be accessed on the release date listed using the web address below:

<http://bit.ly/NDEStandardsTool>

