

Delegation to Commissioner

All administrative functions are the responsibility of the Commissioner who may delegate certain functions to members of the state staff. The Commissioner, or his or her designee, is responsible for faithfully executing the policies and directives of the State Board or seeing that they are executed by the staff.

Right to Overrule Decisions

The State Board reserves the right to overrule the decisions of the Commissioner.

State Government Relations

The Commissioner of Education shall keep the State Board of Education informed of all relevant pending legislation in the State Legislature.

Board Action History

- 11/15/79 – Prior CD
(Included one section now in D2, as well as delegation and right to overrule decisions.)
- 12/7/84 – 2131 DO
(Transferred one section to what is now D2 and added state government relations.)
- 12/8/95 – Prior D3
(Shortened)
- 11/3/06 – D3
(One word change)
- 10/8/09 – D3
(Language added addressing the Commissioner's obligation to carry out both the policies and the directives of the State Board, consistent with LB 549 [Laws, 2009].)
