SUBJECT: Presentation - Student Friendly Standards for Language Arts

Proposed Board Action:

None

Background Information:

The Nebraska Department of Education and classroom teachers across the state are continually looking for ways to help all students achieve the Nebraska Language Arts Standards. One of the ways is to make the purpose for classroom activities, lessons, and assessments clear to students. It is also important that parents are aware of what the learning targets are that are being taught and measured within their child's classroom in order to create a working partnership between schools and families. Therefore, the Student-Friendly Language Arts Standards have been created to make the language of the standards clear and understandable to all. This presentation will review the process used to create the documents and corresponding brochures and highlight ways that they are being used in schools.
