

TO: Roger Breed, Ed.D.
Commissioner of Education

FROM: Donlynn Rice Administrator Curriculum and Instruction
Rich Katt Director Career and Technical Education

SUBJECT: Continuation of Transportation Grant to UNL

Proposed Board Action:

Grant the Commissioner the authority to award a continuation grant to UNL for the "Next Generation Inspiration Program for Careers in Transportation."

Background Information:

The Nebraska Department of Education received a grant award from the US Department of Transportation/Federal Highway Administration in September of 2007 to develop curriculum, student recruitment materials and provide professional development for Transportation, Distribution and Logistics teachers concerning preparation for careers in transportation. The grant has been amended and extended each year to continue the objectives of the project. This grant award to UNL will provide funds from this grant to UNL to develop, plan, coordinate, implement and evaluate a 2012 Professional Development Summer Institute.

Estimated Cost:

The grant award is for a maximum of $90,000 from Federal US Department of Transportation funds.
