FROM: Sharon Katt, Administrator, Adult Program Services

SUBJECT: Approve revisions to the "Guidelines Recommended for Use with Rule 24".

Proposed Board Action:

It is recommended that the Board approve revisions to the "Guidelines Recommended for Use with Rule 24".

Background Information:

The Nebraska Council on Teacher Education (NCTE), with the input of ad hoc committees, has completed revision work on the following endorsements, which, if approved, will become effective August 1, 2014 along with their associated Guidelines.

1. English Language Arts
2. Secondary English
3. Journalism and Media Education
4. Reading and Writing
5. Reading Specialist
6. Speech
7. Theatre
8. Early Childhood Inclusive
9. Early Childhood Education
10. Special Education: Early Childhood Special Education
11. Special Education
12. Special Services Coaching

In addition, two endorsements are recommended for elimination from the current Rule 24:

1. Speech and Theatre
2. Preschool Disabilities

Changes in Rule 24 have been made to accommodate transition from endorsements contained in the current Rule 24 to the endorsements being proposed. Other changes in the Rule are non-substantive and have been made to enhance consistency throughout the Rule. Support materials attached include a summary of the proposed endorsement changes and the proposed Rule 24. In addition, four non-substantive drafting errors related to the term standard institution of higher education were discovered in Rule 24 after the Hearing and will be presented to the Board as corrections prior to Board approval.

Selected pages of the accompanying "Guidelines Recommended for Use with Rule 24" are also included in the support materials. The selected pages relate to the endorsements for which substantive changes are being proposed. The Guidelines are not enforceable except as guidelines; the approval and/or continuation of endorsement programs is based solely on the criteria specified in Rule 24. The Guidelines do not go to public hearing; however, they are formally approved by the Board after the Rule 24 hearing. The Guidelines provide direction to the educator preparation programs as they implement/revise their programs. Both the Rule and the Guidelines are used as a basis for Annual Board Approval and the State Program Review processes. A copy of each institution's course requirements for each endorsement that they offer is kept on file in the NDE Educator Preparation office.

Supporting Documentation Included:

The following documents will serve as support materials for the Work Session and the Board meeting:

1. Summary of Proposed Rule 24 Endorsement Changes
2. Proposed Rule 24
3. Proposed Rule 24 Guidelines--Selected Pages which are associated with proposed revised endorsements and other substantive Rule changes. The full document is available upon request.
4. Hearing Officer Summary for Rule 24

FROM: Scott Summers, Legal Counsel III – Commissioner’s Appointed Staff Person to Conduct a Rule Hearing on revisions to Title 92, Nebraska Administrative Code, Chapter 24, Regulations for Certificate Endorsements

DATE: January 14, 2014

RE: Summary of rulemaking hearing on proposed revisions to 92 NAC 24

On December 6, 2013, the Deputy Commissioner approved a hearing draft and set a hearing date and location to conduct a hearing on the adoption of proposed revisions to Title 92, Nebraska Administrative Code, Chapter 24. By a memorandum dated December 13, 2014, the Deputy Commissioner appointed me to conduct a hearing on this Rule on January 14, 2014, commencing at 10:00 a.m. After the proper legal notice was published, this hearing was held at the Nebraska State Office Building, Nebraska Department of Education, State Board Meeting Room, 301 Centennial Mall South, Sixth Floor, Lincoln, Nebraska. Pursuant to State Board of Education Policy B9, what follows is a written summary of the hearing testimony.

An audio recording of the hearing is available if any members of the Board wish to hear it.

SUMMARY OF TESTIMONY ON THE PROPOSED REVISIONS TO 92 NAC 24
Regulations for Certificate Endorsements

Scott Summers, staff attorney and the hearing official, called this hearing to order, read into the record the name of the newspaper in which a legal notice of the hearing was published and the date the notice appeared, outlined the procedures for the hearing and introduced Sharon Katt, Senior Administrator, Adult Program Services, Nebraska Department of Education.

Ms. Katt testified that she approved the proposed revisions to Rule 24 and introduced Pat Madsen, Education Specialist IV, Adult Program Services, Nebraska Department of Education to explain the proposed revisions.

Ms. Madsen testified that the Nebraska Council on Teacher Education (NCTE), with the input of ad hoc committees, has approved the revision of 12 endorsements, which, if approved, will become effective August 1, 2014 along with their associated Guidelines. In addition, two endorsements are recommended for elimination from the current Rule 24: 1) Speech and Theatre and 2) Preschool Disabilities. Other changes in Rule 24 have been made to accommodate transition from endorsements contained in the current Rule 24 to the endorsements being proposed. Other changes in the Rule are non-substantive and have been made to enhance consistency throughout the Rule. A copy of Ms. Madsen’s testimony is attached to this memo.

January 14, 2014

Ms. Madsen also testified that she has discussed the proposed changes with the Nebraska Catholic Conference and they support the proposed revisions.

Jay Sears, Nebraska State Education Association, Program Director Instructional Advocacy provided written testimony in support of the proposed revisions to Chapter 24. Mr. Sears' written testimony is attached to this memo.

No other oral or written testimony was received.

My name is Sharon Katt and I serve the Nebraska Department of Education as the Senior Administrator for the Adult Program Services team. In this role I have specific responsibility for all Educator (Teacher) Preparation processes and program approval, as well as oversight for Educator Certification.

As Senior Administrator for Adult Program Services, I have reviewed the Rule 24 being presented today for Public Hearing. It certainly has my approval and further details about the revision will be presented by a member of my staff, Pat Madsen. After her presentation we will be available to answer any questions or address any concerns.

My name is Pat Madsen, and I serve the Nebraska Department of Education as an Education Specialist on the Adult Program Services team. In this role I have responsibility for managing the processes related to Rule 24 endorsement revisions.

The proposed revisions to Rule 24 reflect the recommendations of the Nebraska Council on Teacher Education with input of ad hoc committees. Following is a brief summary of the substantive endorsement changes proposed in the Rule and the associated guidelines. The guidelines are not subject to Attorney General or Governor approval; but rather are subject to Board approval and are intended to provide direction to the teacher preparation programs as they implement/revise their programs. They are not enforceable except as guidelines. These revisions, if approved, will become effective on August 1, 2014.

Early Childhood Education – Now a PK-Grade 3 endorsement specific to Early Childhood education, and will now be supplemental to Elementary Education only. Guidelines – revised based on National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) Standards, 2010.

Early Childhood Inclusive – Name change from Early Childhood Education Unified; credit hours increased from 45 to 51 semester hours and include 12 semester hours in one area of specialization, either Birth-K or PK-Grade 3. Guidelines – revised based on Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) Standards, 2012 and NAEYC Standards, 2010.

Special Education: Early Childhood Special Education – Now a B-K endorsement. Guidelines – revised based on CEC Division of Early Childhood (DEC) Standards, 2012.

Preschool Disabilities – Removed from Rule 24 upon recommendation of the Early Childhood ad hoc committee and the Nebraska Council on Teacher Education.

Special Education – Name change from Special Education: Mild/Moderate Disabilities; K-6 or 7-12 subject endorsement requires a minimum of 30 semester hours of special education coursework; K-12 field endorsement requires a minimum of 36 semester hours of special education coursework. Guidelines – revised based on CEC Standards, 2012.

English Language Arts – Now requires a minimum of 48 semester hours, including reading/literacy skills and strategies. Guidelines – revised based on National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE) Standards, 2012.

Secondary English – New endorsement; requires a minimum of 36 semester hours, including reading/literacy skills and strategies. Guidelines – revised based on NCTE Standards, 2010. Teachers with this endorsement will be allowed to teach English and reading courses only.

Journalism and Media Education – Name change from Journalism and Mass Communications; now becomes a supplemental endorsement, requiring a minimum of 18 semester hours in journalism and digital literacies. Guidelines – revised based on Journalism Education Association Standards for Journalism Educators, 2012.

Reading and Writing – Added PK-6 grade level and will become a supplemental endorsement. Guidelines – revised based on International Reading Association (IRA) Standards for Reading and Writing, 2010.

Speech – Will become a supplemental endorsement requiring a minimum of 15 semester hours. Guidelines – revised with updated language. (There are no national standards.)

Theatre – Will become a supplemental endorsement requiring a minimum of 18 semester hours. Guidelines – revised with updated language. (There are no national standards.)

Reading Specialist – Now PK-12 only. No other substantive changes. Guidelines – revised based on IRA Standards for Reading Professionals, 2010.

Speech and Theatre (field) – Removed from Rule 24 upon recommendation of the Language Arts ad hoc committee and the Nebraska Council on Teacher Education.

ROTC – Standardized the 5-year experience requirement with the Career Education endorsement 5-year experience requirement.

Special Services Coaching – Name change to alleviate confusion of this endorsement with the Coaching teaching endorsement; language updated to align with Nebraska School Activities Association language.

Changes in Rule 24 have been made to accommodate transition from endorsements contained in the current Rule 24 to the endorsements being proposed, including numbering due to deletion of endorsements and name changes impacting the alphabetical placement. Other changes in the Rule are non-substantive and have been made to enhance consistency throughout the Rule.

Both the Rule and the associated guidelines are used to examine endorsement programs when a teacher preparation program is visited by a state review team. These visits generally occur once every five to seven years. In the interim, all institutions are required to submit for NDE annual review/approval, a copy of the course requirements for each endorsement program. This information is kept on file in the NDE Adult Program Services section.

I will be happy to answer any questions.

Reference: Revisions to Title 92, NAC, Chapter 24 (Rule 24)

Dear Ms. Katt:

The Nebraska State Education Association supports the adoption of the revisions to Title 92, Nebraska Administrative Code, Chapter 24 (Rule 24), Regulations for Certificate Endorsements, as approved by the State Board of Education at its December 6, 2013 meeting.

The representatives from the NSEA on the Nebraska Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) have had the opportunity to provide valuable input on these proposed revisions and have also discussed these changes thoroughly with our colleagues in Higher Education and School Administration. NSEA believes these revisions will improve the content preparation of educators in the state and provide our schools with quality instructional and administrative personnel. The changes to the 16 endorsements, listed in the draft, provide the skills and knowledge education professionals will need to lead the instructional processes for PreK-12 students.

The NSEA applauds the department's staff for their diligence to detail and collaborative spirit as all of the education stakeholders endeavor to improve the preparation of education professionals.

Thank you for the opportunity to be involved in the revisions to Rule 24.

Sincerely,

Jay Sears, Program Director Instructional Advocacy

Teaching Certificate Endorsements:

Early Childhood Area:

- Early Childhood Education (now supplemental to Elementary Education only) – Grade Level changed from Birth-Grade 3 to PK (age 3)-Grade 3. Requires a minimum of 18 semester hours of coursework specific to Early Childhood Education. Guidelines based on the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) Standards (2010).
- Early Childhood Inclusive (field): Formerly Early Childhood Education Unified. Now requires 51 semester hours including 39 semester hours of coursework in Birth through Grade 3 Early Childhood Education and Early Childhood Special Education and 12 additional hours of coursework in one area of specialization, either Birth through Kindergarten or Age 3 through Grade 3. Guidelines based on the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) Standards (2010) and The Council for Exceptional Children/Division of Early Childhood (2012).
- Special Education: Early Childhood Special Education (subject): Grade level changed from Birth-Grade 3 to Birth through Kindergarten. Requires a minimum of 30 graduate semester hours of coursework including a minimum of 12 graduate semester hours in Early Childhood Education and a minimum of 18 graduate semester hours in Early Childhood Special Education, plus 100-clock hours of related field experiences.

Eliminated Preschool Disabilities (subject), based on recommendation of Early Childhood Ad Hoc Committee and the Nebraska Council on Teacher Education.

Special Education Area:

- Special Education (subject or field): Formerly Special Education: Mild/Moderate Disabilities. Grade levels changed to K-6 or 7-12 (subject) or K-12 (field). Subject endorsement requires a minimum of 42 semester hours, of which 30 semester hours must be special education coursework; field endorsement requires a minimum of 51 semester hours, of which 36 semester hours must be special education coursework. Guidelines based on Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) Initial Standards for Preparation of Special Educators (2012).

NOTE: Additional Special Education endorsements will be presented for Rule 24, effective 8.1.15.

Language Arts area:

- English Language Arts (field): Formerly Language Arts. Now requires a minimum of 48 semester hours of content and pedagogical content coursework in literature, writing, language, communication, and reading/literacy skills and strategies. Guidelines based on the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE)/NCATE Standards for Initial Preparation of Teachers of Secondary English Language Arts (2012).
- Secondary English (subject): New endorsement. Requires a minimum of 36 semester hours of content and pedagogical content coursework in reading/literacy skills and strategies, writing, language, and literature. Guidelines based on the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE)/NCATE Standards for Initial Preparation of Teachers of Secondary English Language Arts (2012). The endorsement allows teaching English 7-12 courses only.

The current English endorsement (30 semester hours) will continue to be listed in Rule 24 for those who received their certificate with an English endorsement prior to August 1, 2015. No institutions will be allowed to recommend for the current English endorsement after August 1, 2015.

- Journalism and Media Education (now supplemental): Formerly Journalism and Mass Communications (subject). Now requires a minimum of 18 semester hours of coursework in journalism and digital literacies, and includes an approved field experience. Guidelines based on the Journalism Education Association Standards for Journalism Educators (2012).
- Reading and Writing (now supplemental, PK-6 or 7-12): Added PK-6 to Grade Levels. Now requires a minimum of 18 semester hours in reading, writing, and language theories, developmental reading and writing at the elementary or secondary level, appropriate strategies and skills, diagnostic and intervention techniques and resources, children's or adolescent literature, language, and writing, and includes an approved field experience. Guidelines based on the International Reading Association (IRA) Standards for Reading and Writing (2010).
- Speech (now supplemental): Now requires a minimum of 15 semester hours of coursework in speech and communication courses, including an approved field experience.
- Theatre (now supplemental): Now requires a minimum of 18 semester hours of coursework in theatre and related courses, including an approved field experience.
- Reading Specialist (subject): Now PK-12 only. Remains a graduate level endorsement. Guidelines revised based on the International Reading Association (IRA) Standards for Reading Professionals (2010).

Eliminated Speech and Theatre (field), based on recommendation of Language Arts Ad Hoc Committee and the Nebraska Council on Teacher Education.

ROTC – Standardize the experience requirement in the endorsement with the 5-year experience requirement of the Career Education certificate.

Special Services Certificate Endorsements:

Special Services Coaching: Name change to eliminate confusion with Coaching (supplemental) Teaching Endorsement; language updated to reflect NSAA language changes and alignment with Rule 21.

CHAPTER 24

002 General Information

002.01 Statutory Authority. This chapter is adopted pursuant to Section 79-808 of the Nebraska Revised Statutes (R.R.S.).

002.02 Scope and Application. This chapter contains regulations for obtaining endorsements indicating grade levels and areas of specialization on Nebraska teaching, administrative, and special services certificates.

002.03 Related Chapters. Throughout this chapter, reference is made to other Department regulations relating to teachers, administrators, and special services providers. Regulations for the issuance of certificates to teach, administer, and provide special services in Nebraska schools are contained in Title 92, Nebraska Administrative Code, Chapter 21 (92 NAC 21) Title 92, Nebraska Administrative Code, Chapter 23 (92 NAC 23) contains regulations concerning the basic skills competency testing of teacher education students. Title 92, Nebraska Administrative Code, Chapter 20 (92 NAC 20) contains the rules for the approval of professional education programs in Nebraska. Copies of these rules are available from the Department.

002.04 Implementation Date. Regardless of the effective date of the approval of this chapter, the implementation date will be August 1, 2014~~3~~. Colleges and persons seeking endorsements must meet these requirements after this date. Prior to that implementation date, the provisions of this chapter, as approved with an effective date of ~~June 23, 2013~~ ~~May 7, 2012~~ shall remain in effect.

003 Definition of Terms. As used in this chapter:

003.01 American Sign Language (ASL) shall mean a natural language indigenous to members of the American Deaf Community, with its own culture, literature, and linguistic structure.

003.02 Approved Endorsement Program shall mean endorsement programs approved pursuant to 92 NAC 20 or any endorsement program approved in any other state or country pursuant to standards comparable and equivalent to 92 NAC 20.

003.03 Board shall mean the Nebraska State Board of Education.

003.04 Certification Officer shall mean a faculty or staff member designated by the chief academic officer or unit administrator of each standard institution of higher education with an approved educator preparation program to receive correspondence regarding this Chapter from the Department and to provide certified records, transcripts, reports and/or recommendations to the Department, as required, for the purpose of certification and/or endorsement.

003.05 Clinical experiences shall mean those that are characterized by careful planning, stipulated goals, required activities, projected performance levels and evaluation of growth. Examples of clinical experiences are microteaching clinics, unit teaching associated with a methodology class, and skill clinics. Activities not meeting the criteria for clinical experiences include general observations, voluntary community service, orientation visits, teacher aiding, and periodic visitations to educational settings.

003.06 Commissioner shall mean the Nebraska State Commissioner of Education.

003.07 Credit hour shall mean the equivalent of 15 instructional class periods of 50 minutes or more. Semester hour has the same meaning as credit hour.

003.08 Department shall mean the State Department of Education, which is comprised of the Board and the Commissioner.

003.09 Endorsement shall mean an area of specialization indicated on a certificate issued pursuant to 92 NAC 21 signifying that the individual has met specific requirements contained in this chapter.

003.10 English as a Second Language (ESL) shall mean a program designed to serve students whose dominant language is not English to become proficient in English through instruction predominantly provided in English to the students.

003.11 Field (used as a descriptor of an endorsement) shall mean two or more subjects which, considered as a single area of study, represent a wider and broader scope than that of a subject.

003.12 Field-based experiences shall mean those that are conducted at a school site, school administration center, school clinic, or community agency, etc. These experiences include classroom observations, tutoring, assisting school administrators or teachers, as well as participation in school and community-wide activities. Planning shall be shared by the professional education unit and the appropriate agency.

003.13 Internship shall mean an experience supervised by a qualified professional who holds a certificate or has qualifications comparable to that of a certificate holder. The internship provides opportunities to practice and demonstrate the knowledge and skills of the specialization area in a setting that is similar to the setting in which the candidate intends to work. Internship differs from student teaching in that it is only applicable to graduate level and supplemental endorsements.

003.14 Practicum shall mean an extensive experience in which education students practice professional skills and knowledge. Both student teaching and internships are examples of a practicum.

003.15 Prekindergarten shall mean the preschool years for children beginning at age 3 prior to entering kindergarten.

003.165 Regular Certificate shall mean an initial, standard or professional certificate, or a comparable and equivalent certificate as defined in 92 NAC 21.

003.176 Semester Hour shall mean the equivalent of 15 instructional class periods of 50 minutes or more. Credit hour has the same meaning as semester hour.

003.187 Standard Institution of Higher Education means any college or university, the teacher education programs of which are fully approved by the Board or approved in another state pursuant to standards which are comparable and equivalent to those set by the board.

003.198 Student teaching shall mean a full time, directed teaching experience conducted in a school setting that provides supervised opportunities to practice and demonstrate over a continuous, extended time period (as required by 92 NAC 20) the unique knowledge and skills of teaching in the endorsement area(s).

003.2019 Subject (used as a descriptor of an endorsement) shall mean a specific course or narrow range of courses taught and offered in a school.

003.210 Supplemental (used as a descriptor of an endorsement) shall mean an endorsement which cannot exist by itself on a certificate but is added to a certificate only in the presence of other endorsements which may or may not be specified.

003.224 Teaching experience shall mean employment as a certified employee for the instruction of students in an approved or accredited school.

004 Application Procedures

004.01 Initial Endorsement. When an applicant applies for his or her teaching, administrative, or special services certificate pursuant to 92 NAC 21, he or she will be required to file documentation, signed by a certification officer of a standard institution of education, indicating that he or she has met the requirements of this chapter for one or more endorsements (depending upon the requirements of 92 NAC 21 for the type of certificate and the type of endorsements), to file an application and pay the fee provided for in 92 NAC 21.

~~Such documentation shall be on forms provided by or accepted by the Department and shall show that such requirements were met in approved endorsement programs. A recommended form (Institutional Verification) is available on the Teacher Certification website.~~

004.02 Additional Endorsements. Additional endorsements may be added to a certificate at any time upon the payment of the fee provided for in 92 NAC 21 and ~~the filing of documentation on forms provided by the Department signed by a certification officer of a standard institution of education,~~ that clearly show that the endorsement requirements and student teaching experience requirements, if applicable, of this chapter have been met in approved endorsement programs.

004.02A Applicants applying for additional subject or field endorsements have no additional student teaching requirement if the endorsement is for the same grade level as endorsement(s) already held on the certificate. If it is for a different level, the applicant must meet half of the 14 week student teaching requirement through student teaching or internship.

004.03 Provisional Endorsements. Individuals holding a regular Nebraska certificate may apply to add one provisional endorsement as follows:

004.03A Completing an application and payment of the statutory fee as required under 92 NAC 21; ~~and submitting documentation on forms provided by the Department showing that they have completed 50 percent of the endorsement credit hour requirement in an approved endorsement program;~~ and

004.03B Submitting a document signed and dated ~~form provided by the Department listing the courses to be completed for the endorsement that is verified~~ by the certification officer of a Nebraska standard institution of high education which verifies that the applicant has completed 50 percent of the endorsement credit hour requirement in an approved endorsement program and lists the remaining courses to be completed. ~~A recommended form (Added Provisional Endorsement) is available on the Teacher certification website.~~

This provisional endorsement cannot be renewed and will expire on August 31 of the third year following issuance.

004.04 Provisional Special Education Endorsement. Individuals holding a regular Nebraska certificate may apply to add a provisional special education endorsement as follows:

004.04A Completing an application and payment of the statutory fee as required under 92 NAC 21;

CHAPTER 24

004.04B Submitting ~~on forms provided by the Department from the employing Nebraska school system, as defined in 92 NAC 21 an Affirmation of Eligibility form, a copy of which is attached as Appendix B and available on the Teacher Certification website~~, requesting the issuance of the provisional special education endorsement;

004.04C Submitting an official transcript from a standard institution of higher education that demonstrates at least three (3) semester hours of coursework has already been completed for the provisional special education endorsement; and 004.04D Submitting a document signed and dated ~~form provided by the Department by the certification officer~~ from a Nebraska standard institution of higher education which ~~documents-verifies~~ that the applicant has established a plan for completion of coursework leading to a regular special education endorsement, including completion of a minimum of 18 hours during the three (3) years for which the provisional endorsement is valid. A recommended form (Added Provisional Endorsement) is available on the Teacher Certification website.

The provisional special education endorsement shall expire August 31 in the third year following issuance and may be renewed for an additional three (3) years if the individual completes at least 18 credit hours as set forth in Section 004.04D.

004.05 Duration of Endorsements

004.05A Endorsements, once granted, continue in effect so long as the holder maintains a certificate in force, or until revoked or amended pursuant to state law or regulation.

004.05B Provisional endorsements continue for three (3) years.

004.05C Provisional special education endorsements continue for three (3) years.

004.05D If an endorsement is amended through changes to this Chapter but the title remains the same, current holders of that endorsement will continue to have that endorsement in effect for their current and future certification. If an endorsement is no longer contained in this chapter because it has been repealed or the title and requirements have changed, the following provisions apply:

004.05D1 If a comparable existing endorsement is listed for such former endorsement in Appendix A of this Chapter, the certificate holder will be considered to hold such comparable endorsement for purposes of determining school or school district compliance with approval or accreditation requirements under Chapters 10 or 14 of this Title, and for purposes of the requirements of any other chapter of this Title. At the time of future recertification, the new certificate will carry the comparable endorsement.

004.05D2 If an endorsement that was formerly designated as a subject or field endorsement is reclassified as a supplemental endorsement, the endorsement will continue to be placed on a certificate as a subject or field endorsement if the subject or field endorsement appeared on a certificate prior to the implementation date of the reclassification, or if the individual seeking the endorsement completes a program for which a standard institution of teacher education makes recommendation for a subject or field endorsement within one year of the implementation date of the reclassification.

Early Childhood Education
Endorsement Guidelines
To Accompany Rule 24
(Adopted by the State Board
of Education on 11/9/01 / /)

006.17 Early Childhood Education

006.17A Grade Levels: Prekindergarten Birth through Grade 3

006.17B Endorsement type: Supplemental Subject

006.17C Persons with this endorsement ~~may be prepared to~~ teach children from ~~prekindergarten (age 3) birth~~ through grade 3, ~~including those with disabilities as defined in Section 79-1118.01 R.R.S.~~

006.17D Certification Endorsement Requirements: The endorsement shall require a minimum of 18 30 semester hours of coursework specific to in early childhood education that address preschool and kindergarten. Candidates for this endorsement must hold, or earn concurrently, an Elementary Education (K-6) endorsement.

006.17D1 Practicum. Candidates must complete a 45 clock-hour practicum working with preschool (prekindergarten) children.

006.17E Endorsement Program Requirements: Nebraska teacher education institutions offering this endorsement must have on file, within the institution, a plan which identifies the courses and the course completion requirements which the institution utilizes to grant credit toward completion of this endorsement.

THE FOLLOWING ARE RECOMMENDED GUIDELINES FOR INCLUSION AS PART OF THE INSTITUTION'S PLAN
UNDER THIS ENDORSEMENT.

Through the courses identified in its plan, the institution ~~should prepare prospective teachers to~~ must provide candidates for this endorsement with opportunities to demonstrate the dispositions and competencies required by the following guidelines, based on National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) Standards (2010).

Standard 1. Promoting Child Development and Learning

Candidates prepared in early childhood degree programs are grounded in a child development knowledge base. They use their understanding of young children's characteristics and needs, and of multiple interacting influences on children's development and learning, to create environments that are healthy, respectful, supportive, and challenging for each child.

Early Childhood Education
Endorsement Guidelines
To Accompany Rule 24
(Adopted by the State Board of Education on 11/9/01 / /)

Element 1. Know and understand young children's characteristics and needs, from birth through age 8.

Element 2. Know and understand the multiple influences on early development and learning, and Element 3. Use developmental knowledge to create healthy, respectful, supportive, and challenging learning environments for young children.

Standard 2. Building Family and Community Relationships

Candidates prepared in early childhood degree programs understand that successful early childhood education depends upon partnerships with children's families and communities. They know about, understand, and value the importance and complex characteristics of children's families and communities. They use this understanding to create respectful, reciprocal relationships that support and empower families, and to involve all families in their children's development and learning.

Element 1. Know about and understand diverse family and community characteristics.

Element 2. Support and engage families and communities through respectful, reciprocal relationships, and Element 3. Involve families and communities in young children's development and learning.

Standard 3. Observing, Documenting, and Assessing to Support Young Children and Families

Candidates prepared in early childhood degree programs understand that child observation, documentation, and other forms of assessment are central to the practice of all early childhood professionals. They know about and understand the goals, benefits, and uses of assessment. They know about and use systematic observations, documentation, and other effective assessment strategies in a responsible way, in partnership with families and other professionals, to positively influence the development of every child.

Element 1. Understand the goals, benefits, and uses of assessment – including its use in development of appropriate goals, curriculum, and teaching strategies for young children.

Element 2. Know about and use observation, documentation, and other appropriate assessment tools and approaches, including the use of technology in documentation, assessment, and data collection.

Early Childhood Education
Endorsement Guidelines
To Accompany Rule 24
(Adopted by the State Board
of Education on 11/9/01 / /)

Element 3. Understand and practice responsible assessment to promote positive outcomes for each child, including the use of assistive technology for children with disabilities, and Element 4. Know about assessment partnerships with families and with professional colleagues to build effective learning environments.

Standard 4. Using Developmentally Effective Approaches

Candidates prepared in early childhood degree programs understand that teaching and learning with young children is a complex enterprise, and its details vary depending on children's ages, characteristics, and the settings within which teaching and learning occur. They understand and use positive relationships and supportive interactions as the foundation for their work with young children and families. Candidates know, understand, and use a wide array of developmentally appropriate approaches, instructional strategies, and tools to connect with children and families and positively influence each child's development and learning.

Element 1. Understand positive relationships and supportive interactions as the foundation of their work with young children,

Element 2. Know and understand effective strategies and tools for early education, including appropriate uses of technology,

Element 3. Use a broad repertoire of developmentally appropriate teaching/learning approaches, and

Element 4. Reflect on own practice to promote positive outcomes for each child.

Standard 5. Using Content Knowledge to Build Meaningful Curriculum

Candidates prepared in early childhood degree programs use their knowledge of academic disciplines to design, implement, and evaluate experiences that promote positive development and learning for each and every young child. Candidates understand the importance of developmental domains and academic (or content) disciplines in early childhood curriculum. They know the essential concepts, inquiry tools, and structure of content areas, including academic subjects, and can identify resources to deepen their understanding. Candidates use their own knowledge and other resources to design, implement, and evaluate meaningful, challenging curriculum that promotes comprehensive developmental and learning outcomes for every young child.

Element 1. Understand content knowledge and resources in academic disciplines: language and literacy; the arts – music, creative movement, dance, drama, visual arts; mathematics; science, physical activity, physical education, health and safety; and social studies,

Element 2. Know and use the central concepts, inquiry tools, and structures of content areas or academic disciplines, and

Element 3. Use own knowledge, appropriate early learning standards, and other resources to design, implement, and evaluate developmentally meaningful and challenging curriculum for each child.

Standard 6. Becoming a Professional

Candidates prepared in early childhood degree programs identify and conduct themselves as members of the early childhood profession. They know and use ethical guidelines and other professional standards related to early childhood practice. They are continuous, collaborative learners who demonstrate knowledgeable, reflective and critical perspectives on their work, making informed decisions that integrate knowledge from a variety of sources. They are informed advocates for sound educational practices and policies.

Element 1. Identify and involve oneself with the early childhood field.

Element 2. Know about and uphold ethical standards and other early childhood professional guidelines,

Element 3. Engage in continuous, collaborative learning to inform practice; using technology effectively with young children, with peers, and as a professional resource,

Element 4. Integrate knowledgeable, reflective, and critical perspectives on early education, and Element 5. Engage in informed advocacy for young children and the early childhood profession.

Standard 7. Early Childhood Field Experiences

Field experiences and clinical practice are planned and sequenced so that candidates develop the knowledge, skills and professional dispositions necessary to promote the development and learning of young children across the entire developmental period of early childhood – in the early childhood age groups (ages 3 through 5 and kindergarten) and in the variety of settings that offer early education (such as early school grades, child care centers and homes, and Head Start programs.)

Early Childhood Education

Through the courses identified in its plan, the institution ~~should prepare prospective teachers to~~ must provide candidates for this endorsement with opportunities to demonstrate the dispositions and competencies required by the following guidelines, based on National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) Standards (2010) and The Council for Exceptional Children/Division of Early Childhood (2012) and assumes the inclusion of the CEC Common Core Standards in personnel preparation for program accreditation.

- A. Early Childhood Inclusive candidates will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of and ability to teach the concepts, skills, and processes of reading/writing, mathematics, science, and social sciences as defined in the Nebraska Student Standards for grades Kindergarten through 3 as per NAC 92 Rule 10.

Early Childhood Inclusive Education Unified
Endorsement Guidelines
To Accompany Rule 24
(Adopted by the State Board of Education on 11/9/01 / /)

Standard 1. Promoting Child Development and Learning, and Individual Learning Differences

Candidates prepared in inclusive early childhood degree programs are grounded in a child development knowledge base. They also understand how disabilities and exceptionalities interact with development and learning. They use their knowledge and understanding of young children's characteristics and needs, and of multiple interacting influences on children's development and learning, to create environments that are healthy, respectful, supportive, meaningful, and challenging for each child, including those with disabilities.

Element 1. Know and understand young children's abilities, characteristics, and needs from birth through age 8 based on theories of typical and atypical development, including the etiology, characteristics and classification of common disabilities and how these impact development and learning in the first years of life.

Element 2. Know and understand the multiple influences on early development and learning, including biological and environmental factors that affect pre-, peri-, and postnatal development and learning, mental health and social-emotional development, and the impact of medical conditions on the child's development and the families' concerns, resources, and priorities.

Element 3. Know and understand the impact of social and physical environments on development and learning and recognize the impact of language delays on cognitive, social-emotional, adaptive, play, temperament, motor development, and behavior. Establish communication systems for young children that support self-advocacy.

Element 4. Use developmental knowledge to create healthy, respectful, supportive, meaningful and challenging learning environments for young children, taking into account children's varying developmental and learning rates. Support caregivers to respond to child's cues and preferences, establish predictable routines and turn taking, and facilitate communicative interactions.

Element 5. Use understanding of development and individual differences to respond to the needs of individuals with special needs by considering current research related to development across the five developmental domains, play, and temperament when assessing learning situations, developing learning experiences, and choosing strategies appropriate to each child's needs.

Standard 2. Building Family and Community Relationships

Early Childhood Inclusive Education-Unified
Endorsement Guidelines
To Accompany Rule 24
(Adopted by the State Board of Education on 11/9/04 / /)

Candidates prepared in inclusive early childhood degree programs understand that successful early childhood education depends upon partnerships with children's families and communities. They know about, communicate and value the importance and complex characteristics of children's families and communities. They use this understanding to create respectful, reciprocal relationships that support and empower families, and to involve all families in their children's development and learning. They collaborate with families, other educators, related service providers, and personnel from community agencies in culturally responsive ways to address the needs of children with disabilities across a range of learning experiences.

Element 1. Know about and understand diverse family and community characteristics and how language, culture, and family background influence children's learning, and apply that knowledge to develop, implement, and evaluate learning experiences and strategies that respect the diversity of children and their families.

Element 2. Support and engage families and communities through respectful, reciprocal relationships. Recognize that diversity is a part of families, cultures, and schools, and that complex human issues can interact with the delivery of special education services. Support families' choices and priorities in the development of goals and intervention strategies and implement family-oriented services based on the family's identified resources, priorities, and concerns.

Element 3. Involve families and communities in young children's development and learning. Support and facilitate family and child interactions as primary contexts for development and learning, employ adult learning principles in consulting and training family members and service providers, involve families in the evaluation of services, and assist the family in planning for transition.

Element 4. Use the theory and elements of effective collaboration to serve as a collaborative resource to colleagues and use collaboration to promote the well-being of children and families across a wide range of settings and collaborators. Understand the structures supporting inter-agency collaboration, including interagency agreements, referral, and consultation and apply models of team processes in early childhood to collaborate with caregivers, professionals, and agencies to support children's development and learning. Participate as a team member to identify and enhance team roles, communication, and problem solving, and provide consultation as needed in settings serving infants and young children.

Early Childhood Inclusive Education Unified
Endorsement Guidelines
To Accompany Rule 24
(Adopted by the State Board of Education on 11/9/01 / /)

Standard 3. Observing, Documenting, and Assessing to Support Young Children and Families

Candidates prepared in inclusive early childhood degree programs understand that child observation, documentation, and other forms of assessment are central to the practice of all early childhood professionals. They know about and understand the goals, benefits, and uses of assessment and use multiple methods of assessment and data-sources in making educational decisions. They know about and use systematic observations, documentation, and other effective assessment strategies in a responsible way, in partnership with families and other professionals, to positively influence the development of every child.

Element 1. Understand the goals, benefits, and uses of assessment – including its use in development of appropriate goals, curriculum, and teaching strategies for young children and meaningfully connect curriculum to assessment and progress monitoring activities.

Element 2. Know about and use observation, documentation, and other appropriate assessment tools and approaches, including the use of technology in documentation, assessment, and data collection.

Element 3. Select and use technically sound formal and informal assessments in compliance with established criteria that minimize bias, and apply knowledge of measurement principles and practices to interpret assessment results and guide decisions for children affecting development and learning, particularly for those with disabilities. Know how to apply state guidelines that distinguish among at-risk, developmental delay, and disability.

Element 4. Understand assessment practices that can guide:

- a) Development of functional goals/targeted outcomes,
- b) Selection of appropriate strategies to support children's learning, including the use of assistive technology, and
- c) Positive learning outcomes, as well as guide teachers' reflections on their teaching efforts and modifications as needed.

Element 5. Know about assessment partnerships with families and with professional colleagues, recognize the role of the family in the assessment process, and collaborate with them to use multiple types of assessment information gathered from multiple sources and environments in making decisions about children, including those with disabilities, to build

Endorsement Guidelines
To Accompany Rule 24
(Adopted by the State Board of Education on 11/9/04 / /)

effective learning environments that align assessment with curriculum, content standards, and local, state, and federal regulations.

Element 6. In developing Individualized Family Service Plans (IFSP) and Individualized Education Programs (IEP), assist families in identifying their concerns, resources, and priorities, assess progress in the five developmental domains, play, and temperament and children's engagement and independence in everyday routines, use a variety of materials and contexts to maintain the interest of infants and young children in the assessment process, participate as a team member to integrate assessment results in the development and implementation of IFSPs and IEPs, emphasize the child's strengths and needs in assessment reports, produce reports that focus on developmental domains and functional concerns, and conduct ongoing formative child, family, and setting assessments to monitor instructional effectiveness.

Standard 4. Using Developmentally Effective Approaches

Candidates prepared in inclusive early childhood degree programs understand that teaching and learning with young children is a complex enterprise, and its details vary depending on children's ages, characteristics, and the settings within which teaching and learning occur. They create safe, inclusive, culturally responsive learning environments so that children, with and without disabilities, become active and effective learners and develop emotional well-being, positive social interactions, and self-determination. They understand and use positive relationships and supportive interactions as the foundation for their work with young children and families. Candidates know, understand, and use a wide array of developmentally appropriate approaches, instructional strategies, and tools to connect with children and families and positively influence each child's development and learning.

Element 1. Understand positive relationships and supportive interactions as the foundation of their work with young children, use motivational and instructional interventions to teach children with disabilities or other special needs how to adapt to different environments, and intervene safely and appropriately with children in crisis.

Element 2. Know and understand effective strategies and tools for early education to create optimal learning environments. Select, develop, and evaluate developmentally and functionally appropriate materials, equipment, and environment and organize space, time, materials, peers, and adults to maximize children's progress in natural and structured environments. Provide stimulus-rich indoor and outdoor environments that employ materials, media, and appropriate uses of technology, including adaptive and assistive technology, that are responsive to individual differences.

Element 3. Use a broad repertoire of developmentally appropriate teaching and learning approaches, including the application of universal design for learning, to embed learning opportunities in everyday routines, relationships, activities, and places.

Element 4. Collaborate with other colleagues to create safe, inclusive, culturally responsive learning environments to engage individuals with disabilities in meaningful learning activities and social interactions and structure social environments, using peer models and proximity, and responsive adults, to promote interactions among peers, parents, and caregivers.

Element 5. Implement basic health, nutrition and safety management procedures for infants and young children, recognize signs of emotional distress, neglect, and abuse, use and follow recommended reporting and evaluation procedures, and recommend referral with ongoing follow-up to community health and social services.

Element 6. Reflect on own practice to promote positive outcomes for each child.

Standard 5. Using Content Knowledge to Build Meaningful Curriculum

Candidates prepared in inclusive early childhood degree programs use their knowledge of academic disciplines to design, implement, and evaluate experiences that promote positive development and learning for each and every young child. Candidates understand the importance of developmental domains and academic (or content) disciplines in early childhood curriculum. They know the essential concepts, inquiry tools, and structure of content areas, including academic subjects, and can identify resources to deepen their understanding. Candidates use their own knowledge and other resources to design, implement, and evaluate meaningful, challenging curriculum that promotes comprehensive developmental and learning outcomes for every young child and they apply knowledge of general and specialized curricula to individualize learning, particularly for individuals with disabilities or other special needs.

Element 1. Understand content knowledge and resources in academic disciplines and the theories and research that form the basis of developmental and academic curricula and instructional strategies for infants and young children in these disciplines; language and literacy; the arts – music, creative movement, dance, drama, visual arts; mathematics; science, physical activity, physical education, health and safety; and social studies; use general and specialized content knowledge to teach across these curricular content areas to individualize learning, and modify general and specialized curricula to make them accessible to children with disabilities.

Element 2. Know and use the central concepts, inquiry tools, and structures of content areas or academic disciplines, including both developmental and academic content, to organize this knowledge, integrate cross-disciplinary skills, and develop meaningful learning progressions for children with and without disabilities.

Element 3. Use own knowledge, appropriate early learning standards, and other resources to design, implement, and evaluate developmentally meaningful and challenging curriculum for each child.

Standard 6. Instructional Planning and Strategies

Candidates prepared in inclusive early childhood degree programs select, adapt, and use a repertoire of evidence-based instructional strategies to advance the development and learning of children, particularly those with disabilities.

Element 1. Use a child's abilities, interests, learning environments, and cultural and linguistic factors to select, develop, and adapt learning experiences that will enable the child to master and generalize learning, including language development and communication skills, and apply cross-disciplinary knowledge and skills to develop the child's critical thinking and problem solving skills.

Element 2. Use technologies to support instructional assessment, planning, and delivery for children with disabilities, including the use of augmentative and alternative communication systems and a variety of assistive technologies to support the communication and learning of children with disabilities.

Element 3. Use individual and group guidance and problem-solving techniques to develop supportive relationships with and among children, use strategies to teach social skills and conflict resolution, and implement and evaluate preventative and reductive strategies to address challenging behaviors.

Element 4. Link development, learning experiences, and instruction to promote educational transitions, and develop and implement education and transition plans for children with disabilities that support transitions among settings for infants and young children and provide different learning experiences in collaboration with individuals, families, and teams.

Element 5. Plan, implement, and evaluate developmentally and individually appropriate curriculum, instruction, and adaptations based on knowledge of the child, family, and community and implement developmentally and functionally appropriate activities, using a variety of formats, based on systematic instruction. Design intervention strategies incorporating information from multiple disciplines, use a continuum of intervention strategies to support access to the general curriculum and daily routines, and make adaptations for the unique developmental and learning needs of children, including those from diverse backgrounds. Facilitate child-initiated development and learning and use teacher-scaffolded and initiated instruction to complement child-initiated learning.

Element 6. Develop, implement, and evaluate IFSPs and IEPs with family members and other professionals as members of a team, that support development and learning as well as caregiver responsiveness, align individual goals with developmental and academic content, and support the child's independent functioning in the child's natural environment.

Standard 7. Becoming a Professional

Candidates prepared in inclusive early childhood degree programs identify and conduct themselves as members of the early childhood profession. They know and use ethical guidelines and other professional standards related to early childhood practice and they use their foundational knowledge of the field and of its Ethical Principles and Practice Standards to inform their practice, engage in life-long learning, and to advance the profession. They are continuous, collaborative learners who demonstrate knowledgeable, reflective and critical perspectives on their work, making informed decisions that integrate knowledge from a variety of sources. They are informed advocates for sound educational practices and policies.

Element 1. Identify and become involved with the early childhood field. Understand how foundational knowledge and current issues influence professional practice, understand legal, ethical and policy issues related to educational, developmental, and medical services for infants and young children and their families, and integrate knowledgeable, reflective, and critical perspectives on early education to better serve children and their families.

Element 2. Know about and uphold ethical standards and other early childhood professional guidelines and use professional Ethical Principles and Professional Practice Standards to guide one's practice. Integrate family systems theories and principles into professional practice, respect family choices and goals, and apply evidence-based and recommended practices for infants and young children, including those from diverse backgrounds.

Element 3. Engage in continuous, collaborative learning to inform practice; use technology effectively with young children, with peers, and as a professional resource; and show understanding of the significance of lifelong learning by participating in professional activities, professional organizations, and learning communities relevant to the early childhood field, including early childhood education, early childhood special education, and early intervention.

Element 4. Advance the profession by engaging in informed advocacy activities for young children and the early childhood profession, including advocating for infants and young children and their families and for the professional status and working conditions of those who work with them, and by mentoring and providing guidance and direction to para-educators, tutors, and volunteers.

Standard 8. Early Childhood Field Experiences

Inclusive early childhood field experiences and clinical practice are planned and sequenced so all Early Childhood Inclusive candidates develop the knowledge, skills and professional dispositions necessary to promote the development and learning of young children, including those with disabilities, across the entire developmental period of early childhood – infants and toddlers (ages birth to 3), preschool-kindergarten (ages 3 through kindergarten), and the primary grades 1-3 and in the variety of group education and care settings that offer early childhood education (such as child care centers and family child care homes, school based preschool and/or Head Start programs, public or private child care centers, community agencies, or home visiting programs).

Element 1. Opportunities for candidates to observe and practice under the supervision of fully qualified professionals must include:

- a) a minimum of 30-clock hours working with each age group (infants and toddlers, preschool-kindergarten, and the primary grades 1-3);
- b) experiences working in at least two early childhood group education and care settings that offer early childhood education (such as child care centers and family child care homes, school based preschool and/or Head Start programs, public or private child care centers, community agencies, or home visiting programs); and
- c) experiences working with children who have a range of abilities and disabilities and who reflect diverse family systems.

To Accompany Rule 24
(Adopted by the State Board of Education on 11/16/00 / /)

Element 1. Candidates are knowledgeable about texts – print and non-print texts, media texts, classic texts, and contemporary texts, including young adult – that represent a range of world literatures, historical traditions, genres, and the experiences of different genders, ethnicities, and social classes; they are able to use literary theories to interpret and critique a range of texts.

Element 2. Candidates are knowledgeable about how adolescents read texts and make meaning through interaction with media environments.

Standard 2. Candidates demonstrate knowledge of English Language Arts subject matter content that specifically includes language and writing as well as knowledge of adolescents as language users.

Element 1. Candidates can compose a range of formal and informal texts taking into consideration the interrelationships among form, content, audience, context, and purpose; candidates can use contemporary technologies and/or digital media to compose multimodal discourse.

Element 2. Candidates know the conventions of English language as they relate to various rhetorical situations (grammar, usage, and mechanics); they understand the concept of dialect and are familiar with relevant grammar systems (e.g., descriptive and prescriptive); they understand principles of language acquisition; they recognize the influence of English language history on ELA content; and they understand the impact of language on society.

Element 3. Candidates are knowledgeable about how adolescents compose texts and make meaning through interaction with media environments.

Standard 3. Candidates plan instruction and design assessments for reading and the study of literature to promote learning for all students.

Element 1. Candidates use their knowledge of theory, research and practice in English Language Arts to plan standards-based, coherent and relevant learning experiences utilizing a range of different texts—across genres, periods, forms, authors, cultures and various forms of media—and instructional strategies that are motivating and accessible to all students, including English language learners, students with special needs, students from diverse language and learning backgrounds, those designated as high achieving, and those at risk of failure.

Element 2. Candidates design a range of authentic assessments (e.g., formal and informal, formative and summative) of reading and literature that demonstrate an understanding of how learners develop and that address interpretive, critical, and evaluative abilities in reading, writing, speaking, listening, viewing, and presenting.

Element 3. Candidates plan standards-based, coherent and relevant learning experiences in reading that reflect knowledge of current theory and reading-writing connections. Evidence that demonstrates competence may include, but is not limited to:

Elementary Level Candidates:

- A. Recognize major theories of reading and writing processes and development, including first and second literacy acquisition and the role of native language in learning to read and write in a second language;
- B. Explain language and reading development across elementary years (e.g., word recognition, language comprehension, strategic knowledge, and reading-writing connections) using supporting evidence from theory and research;
- C. Demonstrate knowledge about transfer of skills from the primary or home language (L1) to English (L2) as it affects literacy learning across these components; and
- D. Explain the research and theory about effective learning environments that support individual motivation to read and write (e.g., choice, challenge, interests, and access to traditional print, digital, and online resources).

Secondary Level Candidates:

- A. Read the scholarship of the reading profession and recognize the theoretical knowledge base about the reading and writing of students;
- B. Explain major theories of reading and writing processes and development in adolescents using supporting research evidence, including the relationship between culture and the native language of English learners as a support system in their learning to read and write in English;
- C. Explain language and reading development during adolescence (e.g., word recognition, language comprehension, strategic knowledge, and reading-writing connections) with supporting evidence from theory and research; and
- D. Explain the research and theory of learning environments that support individual motivation to read and write.

Element 2. Understand the historically shared knowledge of the profession and changes over time in the perceptions of reading and writing development, processes, and components. Evidence that demonstrates competence may include, but is not limited to:

Elementary and Secondary Level Candidates:

- A. Identify major milestones in reading and interpret them in light of the current social context.

- B. As needed, adapt instructional approaches and materials to meet the language-proficiency needs of English learners;

Elementary Level Candidates:

- A. Differentiate instructional approaches to meet students' reading and writing needs;
- B. Implement and evaluate instruction in each of the following areas: concepts of print, phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary, comprehension, fluency, critical thinking, motivation, and writing; and
- C. Incorporate traditional print, digital, and online resources as instructional tools to enhance student learning.

Secondary Level Candidates:

- A. Differentiate instructional approaches to meet students' reading and writing needs in the content areas;
- B. Implement and evaluate content area instruction in each of the following elements: vocabulary meaning, comprehension, writing, motivation, and critical thinking; and
- C. Incorporate traditional print, digital, and online resources as instructional tools to enhance student learning.

Element 3. Use a wide range of texts (e.g., narrative, expository, and poetry) from traditional print, digital, and online resources. Evidence that demonstrates competence may include, but is not limited to:

Elementary and Secondary Level Candidates:

- A. Guided by evidence-based rationale, select and use traditional print, digital, and online resources; and
- B. Build an accessible, multilevel, and diverse classroom library that contains traditional print, digital, and online resources.

Secondary Level Candidates:

- A. Demonstrate knowledge about various materials, including those specifically for adolescent learners, and their uses.

Standard 3. Assessment and Evaluation. Candidates use a variety of assessment tools and practices to plan and evaluate effective reading and writing instruction.

Element 1. Understand types of assessments and their purposes, strengths, and limitations. Evidence that demonstrates competence may include, but is not limited to:

- B. Provide differentiated instruction and instructional materials, including traditional print, digital, and online resources, that capitalize on diversity; and
- C. Provide instruction and instructional formats that engage students as agents of their own learning.

Elementary Level Candidates:

- A. Provide instruction and instructional materials that are linked to students' backgrounds and facilitate a learning environment in which differences and commonalities are valued (e.g., use literature that reflects the experiences of marginalized groups and the strategies they use to overcome challenges).

Element 3. Develop and implement strategies to advocate for equity. Evidence that demonstrates competence may include, but is not limited to:

Elementary and Secondary Level Candidates:

- A. Provide students with linguistic, academic, and cultural experiences that link their communities with the school;
- B. Advocate for change in societal practices and instructional structures that are inherently biased or prejudiced against certain groups; and
- C. Demonstrate how issues of inequity and opportunities for social justice, activism, and resiliency can be incorporated into the literacy curriculum.

Standard 5. Literate Environment. Candidates create a literate environment that fosters reading and writing by integrating foundational knowledge, instructional practices, approaches and methods, curriculum materials, and the appropriate use of assessments.

Element 1. Design the physical environment to optimize students' use of traditional print, digital, and online resources as reading and writing instruction. Evidence that demonstrates competence may include, but is not limited to:

Elementary and Secondary Level Candidates:

- A. Arrange their classrooms to provide easy access to books, other instructional materials, and specific areas designed for a variety of individual, small-group, and whole-class activities; and
- B. Modify the arrangements to accommodate students' changing needs.

Element 2. Design a social environment that is low risk and includes choice, motivation, and scaffolded support to optimize students' opportunities to read and write. Evidence that demonstrates competence may include, but is not limited to:

Elementary and Secondary Level Candidates:

- A. Demonstrate a respectful attitude toward all learners and understand the roles of choice, motivation, and scaffolded support in creating low-risk and positive social environments;
- B. Model and teach students routines for establishing and maintaining positive social environments (e.g., appropriate ways to interact with each other and adults); and
- C. Create supportive environments where English learners are encouraged and given many opportunities to use English.

Element 3. Use routines to support reading and writing instruction (e.g., time allocation, transitions from one activity to another, discussions, and peer feedback.) Evidence that demonstrates competence may include, but is not limited to:

Elementary and Secondary Level Candidates:

- A. Understand the role of routines in creating and maintaining positive learning environments for reading and writing instruction using traditional print, digital, and online resources; and
- B. Create and use routines to support instructional and social goals (e.g., regular steps for sharing and responding to materials read, formats for reporting, and efficient transitions among activities, spaces, and online resources).

Element 4. Use a variety of classroom configurations (i.e., whole class, small group, and individual) to differentiate instruction. Evidence that demonstrates competence may include, but is not limited to:

Elementary and Secondary level Candidates:

- A. Use evidence-based rationale to make and monitor flexible instructional grouping options for students;
- B. Model and scaffold procedures, so students learn to work effectively in a variety of classroom configurations and activities; and
- C. Use various practices to differentiate instruction (e.g., cooperative learning, literature circles, partner work, and research/investigation groups).

opportunities for learning to read and write. Evidence that demonstrates competence shall include, but is not limited to:

- A. Create supportive social environments for all students, especially those who struggle with reading and writing;
- B. Model for and support teachers and other professionals in doing the same for all students; and
- C. Create supportive environments where English learners are encouraged and provided with many opportunities to use English.

Element 5.3 Candidates use routines to support reading and writing instruction (e.g., time allocation, transitions from one activity to another, discussions, and peer feedback). Evidence that demonstrates competence shall include, but is not limited to:

- A. Understand the role of routines in creating and maintaining positive learning environments for reading and writing instruction using traditional print, digital, and online resources;
- B. Create effective routines for all students, especially those who struggle with reading and writing; and
- C. Support teachers in doing the same for all readers.

Element 5.4 Candidates use a variety of classroom configurations (i.e., whole class, small group, and individual) to differentiate instruction. Evidence that demonstrates competence shall include, but is not limited to:

- A. Use evidence-based grouping practices to meet the needs of all students, especially those who struggle with reading and writing; and
- B. Support teachers in doing the same for all students.

Standard 6. Professional Learning and Leadership. Candidates recognize the importance of, demonstrate, and facilitate professional learning and leadership as a career-long effort and responsibility.

Element 6.1 Candidates demonstrate foundational knowledge of adult learning theories and related research about organizational change. Evidence that demonstrates competence shall include, but is not limited to:

- A. Use literature and research findings about adult learning, organizational change, professional development, and school culture in working with teachers and other professionals;
- B. Use knowledge of students and teachers to build effective professional development programs; and
- C. Use the research base to assist in building an effective, school-wide professional development program.

they are able to use literary theories to interpret and critique a range of texts.

Element 2. Candidates are knowledgeable about how adolescents read texts and make meaning through interaction with media environments.

Standard 2. Candidates demonstrate knowledge of English subject matter content that specifically includes language and writing as well as knowledge of adolescents as language users.

Element 1. Candidates can compose a range of formal and informal texts taking into consideration the interrelationships among form, audience, context, and purpose; candidates understand that writing is a recursive process; candidates can use contemporary technologies and/or digital media to compose multimodal discourse.

Element 2. Candidates know the conventions of English language as they relate to various rhetorical situations (grammar, usage, and mechanics); they understand the concept of dialect and are familiar with relevant grammar systems (e.g., descriptive and prescriptive); they understand principles of language acquisition; they recognize the influence of English language history on English content; and they understand the impact of language on society.

Element 3. Candidates are knowledgeable about how adolescents compose texts and make meaning through interaction with media environments.

Standard 3. Candidates plan instruction and design assessments for reading and the study of literature to promote learning for all students.

Element 1. Candidates use their knowledge of theory, research and practice in English to plan standards-based, coherent and relevant learning experiences utilizing a range of different texts—across genres, periods, forms, authors, cultures, and various forms of media—and instructional strategies that are motivating and accessible to all students, including English language learners, students with special needs, students from diverse language and learning backgrounds, those designated as high achieving, and those at risk of failure.

Element 2. Candidates design a range of authentic assessments (e.g., formal and informal, formative and summative) of reading and literature that demonstrate an understanding of how learners develop and that address interpretive, critical, and evaluative abilities in reading, writing, speaking, listening, viewing, and presenting.

Element 3. Candidates plan standards-based, coherent and relevant learning experiences in reading that reflect knowledge of current theory and research about the teaching and learning of reading and that utilize individual and collaborative approaches and a variety of reading strategies.

Element 4. Candidates design or knowledgeably select appropriate reading assessments that inform instruction by providing data about student interests, reading proficiencies, and reading processes.

Element 5. Candidates plan instruction that incorporates knowledge of language—structure, history, and conventions—to facilitate students' comprehension and interpretation of print and non-print texts.

Element 6. Candidates plan instruction which, when appropriate, reflects curriculum integration and incorporates interdisciplinary teaching methods and materials.

Standard 4. Candidates plan instruction and design assessments for composing texts (i.e., oral, written, and visual) to promote learning for all students.

Element 1. Candidates use their knowledge of theory, research, and practice in English to plan standards-based, coherent, and relevant composing experiences that utilize individual and collaborative approaches and contemporary technologies and reflect an understanding of writing processes and strategies in different genres for a variety of purposes and audiences.

Element 2. Candidates design a range of assessments for students that promote their development as writers, are appropriate to the writing task, and are consistent with current theory and research. Candidates are able to respond to student writing in process and to finished texts in ways that engage students' ideas and encourage their growth as writers over time.

Element 3. Candidates plan instruction related to the strategic use of language conventions (grammar, usage, and mechanics) in the context of students' writing for different audiences, purposes, and modalities.

Element 4. Candidates plan instruction that incorporates students' home and community languages to enable skillful control over their rhetorical choices and language practices for a variety of audiences and purposes.

Standard 5. Candidates plan, implement, assess, and reflect on research-based instruction that increases motivation and active student engagement, builds sustained learning of English language arts, and responds to diverse students' context-based needs.

Element 1. Candidates plan and implement instruction based on English language arts curricular requirements and standards, school and community contexts, and knowledge about students' linguistic and cultural backgrounds.

Secondary English
Endorsement Guidelines
To Accompany Rule 24
(Adopted by the State Board of Education on / /)

Element 2. Candidates use data about their students' individual differences, identities, and funds of knowledge for literacy learning to create inclusive learning environments that contextualize curriculum and instruction and help all students participate actively in their own learning in English.

Element 3. Candidates differentiate instruction based on students' self-assessments and formal and informal assessments of learning in English; candidates communicate with students about their performance in ways that actively involve them in their own learning.

Element 4. Candidates select, create, and use a variety of instructional strategies and teaching resources, including contemporary technologies and digital media, consistent with what is currently known about student learning in English.

Standard 6. Candidates demonstrate knowledge of how theories and research about social justice, diversity, equity, student identities, and schools as institutions can enhance students' opportunities to learn in English.

Element 1. Candidates plan and implement English and literacy instruction that promotes social justice and critical engagement with complex issues related to maintaining a diverse, inclusive, equitable society.

Element 2. Candidates use knowledge of theories and research to plan instruction responsive to students' local, national and international histories, individual identities (e.g., race, ethnicity, gender expression, age, appearance, ability, spiritual belief, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, and community environment), and languages/dialects as they affect students' opportunities to learn in English.

Standard 7. Candidates are prepared to interact knowledgeably with students, families, and colleagues based on social needs and institutional roles, engage in leadership and/or collaborative roles in English language arts professional learning communities, and actively develop as professional educators.

Element 1. Candidates model literate and ethical practices in English teaching, and engage in/reflect on a variety of experiences related to English language arts.

Element 2. Candidates engage in and reflect on a variety of experiences related to English language arts that demonstrate understanding of and readiness for leadership, collaboration, ongoing professional development, and community engagement.

of Education on ~~11/16/00~~ / /)

Initial Standard 1. Learner Development and Individual Learning Differences.

Early childhood special education professionals understand how disabilities may interact with development and learning and use this knowledge to provide meaningful and challenging learning experiences for individuals with disabilities.

Element 1.1 Early childhood special education professionals understand how language, culture, and family background influence the learning of individuals with disabilities.

Element 1.2 Early childhood special education professionals use understanding of development and individual differences to respond to the needs of individuals with disabilities.

Indicators include, but are not limited to:

- A. Theories of typical and atypical early childhood development.
- B. Biological and environmental factors that affect pre-, peri-, and postnatal development and learning.
- C. Specific disabilities, including the etiology, characteristics, and classification of common disabilities in infants and young children, and specific implications for development and learning in the first years of life.
- D. Impact of medical conditions and related care on development and learning.
- E. Impact of medical conditions on family concerns, resources, and priorities.
- F. Factors that affect the mental health and social-emotional development of infants and young children.
- G. Infants and young children develop and learn at varying rates.
- H. Impact of child's abilities, needs, and characteristics on development and learning.
- I. Impact of social and physical environments on development and learning.
- J. Impact of language delays on cognitive, social-emotional, adaptive, play, temperament and motor development.
- K. Impact of language delays on behavior.

Initial Standard 2. Learning Environments. Early childhood special education professionals create safe, inclusive, culturally responsive learning environments so that individuals with disabilities become active and effective learners and develop emotional well-being, positive social interactions, and self-determination.

Element 2.1 Early childhood special education professionals through collaboration with general educators and other colleagues create safe, inclusive, culturally responsive learning environments to engage individuals with disabilities in meaningful learning activities and social interactions.
