

Use of Community College Credit

- Can be used for hours toward a Local Substitute certificate
- Can be used by 4 year colleges as transfer credit toward completing an approved educational program.
- CANNOT be used without an institutional verification from an approved teacher education college toward the hours needed to renew a teaching, administrative or special services certificate.