■ Introduction

This Check4Learning What's New Teacher User Guide describes the changes to Check4Learning for the 2014 mid-year release for teacher-level users.

The User Guide is designed to be a general overview and introduction to the new features, tools, and options, versus a complete reference and step-by-step tutorial guide.

The three Check4Learning User Guides—State User, District and School Administrators, and Teacher—will be updated shortly to provide more detailed reference and tutorial information about these changes.

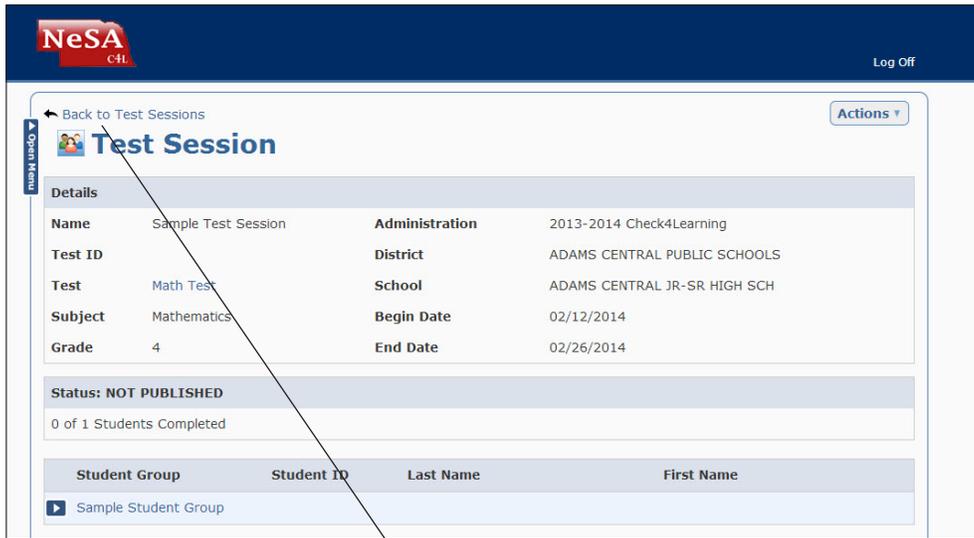

This section of the User Guide describes general navigation and user interface changes to the Check4Learning system.

■ Important— Displayed Data

Throughout this User Guide, school district, school, and student information is displayed in screenshots. Although the names of the schools and the school districts are often real, the student names and data are always fictitious—no actual student names, data, or other information are used or displayed.
