

TOPIC: Procedural Safeguards- Complaints

“If during the investigation of a state complaint filed pursuant to 92 NAC 51-009.11, the complaint investigator identifies compliance issues not alleged by the parent, will the investigator make a finding of noncompliance?”

Yes. The complaint investigator will identify and require correction of all noncompliance issues contained in the complaint (whether or not identified by the parent). All noncompliance must be corrected within the timelines set forth in the letter of finding and in no case more than one year.

92 NAC 51 (Rule 51)

009.11C6 If it is determined there has been failure to comply, there will be included in the notification of findings the specific steps which must be taken by the school district or approved cooperative to bring the school district or approved cooperative into compliance, including technical assistance, negotiations and corrective actions necessary to achieve compliance. The notification shall also set forth a reasonable period of time to voluntarily comply.

92 NAC 51 (Rule 51)

004.14D Deficiencies must be corrected as soon as possible, and in no case later than one year after the district has been notified of the noncompliance. Deficiencies not corrected according to the timelines set forth in 92 NAC 51-004.14 shall be subject to the procedures outlined in 92 NAC 51-004.09.
