

the good news series

Columbus HiHigh School hosted a Spanish Competition for the first time this year with 210 students from fourteen schools. Students from around the state showcased their Spanish skills in drama, folk dance, music, poetry, and poster/art. The event was open to any Nebraska student currently enrolled in Spanish III or higher.