

CORE ACADEMIC SKILLS TEST FOR NEBRASKA CERTIFICATION

Nebraska Department of Education requires passing scores on the Praxis Core Academic Skills Test. The applicant must demonstrate their basic skills competency as determined by the State Board of Education. The test chosen to meet this requirement is the Praxis Core Academic Skills for Educators (Reading, Writing and Mathematics) formerly Praxis I. This test is for admission into an Education Preparation Program; applicants that apply for their first regular Nebraska Teaching or Administrative Certificate are required to take a computer-based test administered by ETS-Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey.

An applicant shall be exempt from this requirement if:

- The applicant has two or more consecutive years of Teaching experience (contract teaching)
- The applicant has Administrative experience in an approved or accredited school while holding a certificate issued by that state on the basis of successful completion of an approved educator certification program in any state
- The candidate has current credential from the National Board of Professional Teaching Standards
