POSTSECONDARY TEACHING PERMIT

A three (3) year teaching permit issued to individuals who are teaching college courses to high school students where both high school and college credit is earned by the student.

Persons holding a current Nebraska Initial, Standard or Professional certificate do not need to also hold this permit if the dual credit course is covered by their endorsement.

POSTSECONDARY PERMIT required of individuals teaching dual credit classes to high school students. If the teacher holds a current regular teaching or administrative certificate, they do not need a postsecondary teaching permit to teach dual credit courses.

AN APPLICANT MUST:

- Be employed by a Nebraska postsecondary educational entity (community college, college or university, or a regionally accredited non-profit postsecondary education institution), AND

- Be approved by a local school board to teach high school student courses earning college and high school credit, AND

- Submit evidence of meeting the human relations training requirement and fingerprinting requirements, if required.

The new permit will require the Nebraska postsecondary educational entity to:

- Complete and sign Postsecondary Permit Verification form
