By Lorraine Griffith; Adapted by Timothy Rasinski

R1: The Constitution
R2: of the United States of America.

All: We the people

R1: The people:
R2: First the Native American,
R3: then a flood of Europeans immigrants,
R4: Africans,
R5: Middle Easterners,
R6: Asian peoples,
R7: South Americans
R1-7: and they keep on coming

All: We the people of the United States,

R1: The United States:
R2: ALL 50!
R3: From Portland, Maine west to San Diego, California,
R4: from Fargo, North Dakota south to El Paso, Texas
R5: Alaska and Hawaii

All: We the people of the United States in order to form a more perfect Union,

R6: That Union seemed perfect, all of the colonies became states as well as the territories to the west,
R7: until the southern states seceded because they wanted States Rights.
R1: But the Civil War ended with a more perfect union of states based upon the belief that all Americans deserved the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

All: We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, R2: Even before the established United States, justice was valued.

R3: John Adams had actually defended the British in court after they had attacked and killed colonists during the Boston Massacre. Although he didn't believe in the British cause, he still believed justice was more important than retribution.
R4: Justice was ensured for Americans by following the fairness of John Adams in establishing a Court system beginning with local courthouses and moving up to the Supreme Court in Washington, D.C.

All: We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility,

R5: There have been times when our nation’s tranquility has been disturbed.
R6: but in spite of Pearl Harbor, December 7th , 1941
R7: and as recent as the horror in New York City, Washington D.C. and Shanksville, Pennsylvania, September
R1-7: we still live in a stable and peaceful country.

All: We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense,

R2: The Air Force. No one comes close! Soar to new heights in the wild blue yonder!
R3: The Army. Be all you can be! Be an army of one!  Hoo Ahh!
The Navy, Welcome aboard; Anchors aweigh!
The Coast Guard, Protecting America, It’s our job everyday!
and the Marines. The few, the proud. Semper Fi (Figh)!

We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

The Constitution of the United States of America has stood the test of time. Although it was signed on September 17th, 1787, it still stands as a ruling document of laws, ensuring our rights and liberties that we still enjoy today. And so, let us proclaim once again for all the world to hear....
