Public service-a service that is performed for the good of the community

Rural-outside of the city

Sacrifice-something you give up for the sake of a greater cause

Urban-pertaining to the city

Volunteer-someone who does work without getting paid

Materials

- Venn diagram template
- Optional extension activity materials:
- Pictures of public servants
- Markers/crayons/black ink
- 11" x 14" white paper
- White chalk/black paper

Procedures

SESSION ONE

1. Open the Virtual Capitol Tour and go to the Memorial Chamber. Begin the lesson by studying the panel entitled "Perils of Fire" which represents public service. <http://nebraskavirtualcapitol.org>

Read the artist's comments in the UNO Gateway regarding the project (see link to Roberts).

<http://digital.olivesoftware.com/Olive/APA/UNOmaha/#panel=document>

View the video clip from NET (32:37-35:26). <http://netnebraska.org/interactive-multimedia/none/capitol-murals>

2. Discuss the difference between a professional service worker and a volunteer service worker (e.g., a firefighter in an urban setting vs. a rural setting). Does the final panel of "Perils of Fire" portray the differences between professional and volunteer service workers?

SESSION TWO

1. Compare/contrast the services provided by professional and volunteer service personnel. Show Nebraska State Volunteer Firefighters Association video clip (30 sec.) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3A50-m5BUio>

Virtual Capitol Lessons

Complete the Venn diagram: "What Do They Do for You?"

2. Discuss how the acts of service workers contribute to the welfare and success of the community and how students might contribute to the welfare and success of their community.

Assessment

Students will write a proclamation or an editorial for an individual honoring the person for his/her heroism and public service.

1. Students examine primary documents of letters of commendation or proclamations to determine what they have in common.
2. Students use the provided template to complete their own proclamation or use standard persuasive writing format for an editorial.

Extensions

1. Use this lesson with "Civic Participation: How to Become Good Citizens" where students actually do a community service project.
2. "Visions of Public Service" - Students will create a mural with images of themselves providing public service to their community.
3. Read aloud Do You Know a Hero? by Dr. Jean A Lukesh. Students will then nominate someone they know in the service community to the Nebraska Hall of Fame by writing a persuasive letter to the Governor and the Capitol Commission. Students will close the lesson by giving a one to two minute persuasive talk to the class/student body.
4. Interactive Art Project: "Visions of Public Service". Students will create a display of descriptive phrases of their personal aspirations to become members of the service community. "I will contribute to the welfare and success of (service area) at home, school, and community by..."
Extend an invitation to staff and other students to add to the board.
5. Interview public service workers – Invite a firefighter, police officer, military member or animal shelter volunteer to class and have the students interview the individuals. Show video clips from the UNO College of Public Affairs Public Service Stories (interviews with individuals engaged in public service roles) to prepare students.

STATE OF NEBRASKA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, Nebraska's firefighters are dedicated to the protection of life, property and to the safety of our citizens; and*
- WHEREAS, Statistics show that civilian fire deaths happened most often in home structure fires; and*
- WHEREAS, Without the constant prevention and suppression efforts performed by the Nebraska Fire Service, the damages to property and the loss of human life would be much greater; and*
- WHEREAS, Unwanted fires are not just a hazard to the property owner, but they also endanger other individuals, including responding firefighters; and*
- WHEREAS, With statistics still coming in, the Nebraska Fire Information Reporting System indicates that Nebraska firefighters responded to more than 31,111 calls for service in 2014; and*
- WHEREAS, Fires accounted for 399 of the calls for service which have been reported and resulted in more than $27,000,000 in total loss; and*
- WHEREAS, Everyone should acknowledge the dedication and bravery of the men and women who provide communities with fire protection services; and*
- WHEREAS, National Fire Prevention Leaders and the United States Fire Administration remind us that, "Fire is Everyone's Fight;" and*
- WHEREAS, Nebraskans should do their part to keep their communities, families and firefighters safe from the ravages of fire by learning about and practicing fire prevention techniques.*
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Pete Ricketts, Governor of the State of Nebraska, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM the 9th day of May, 2015 as*

FIRE RECOGNITION DAY

In Nebraska, and I do hereby urge all fire departments to participate in this opportunity to help Nebraskans understand the great damage caused to both life and property by fire and how they can support the local fire services and fire prevention efforts.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and cause the Great Seal of the State of Nebraska to be affixed this Eighth day of April, in the year of our Lord Two Thousand Fifteen.
