

Career Ready

THE POWER OF LANGUAGES

to make you college,
career, and civic ready

WORLD LANGUAGE WEEK
MARCH 31-APRIL 6, 2019

Employers need qualified professionals who can expand their markets and respond attentively to clients.

Engineering companies need multilingual engineers, salespeople, and marketing. Every branch of the military and all law enforcement agencies are actively seeking bilingual employees. Health providers are seeking bilingual employees of languages in all levels of health care in the US.

The ability to communicate can impact earnings, job prospects, and professional success.

Created by World Language Program Specialist,
Nebraska Department of Education in honor of World Language
Week 2019. May be reprinted for educational use.