

Name: _____

Instructions: Question 1 may be answered by watching all ten sections of the virtual industry tour.

1. List eight careers mentioned during the virtual industry tour:

- | | |
|----|----|
| 1. | 5. |
| 2. | 6. |
| 3. | 7. |
| 4. | 8. |

Instructions: The following questions are specific to the ELL section of the virtual industry tour.

2. What education is required to become an ELL teacher?

3. Name at least three things Brooke David said ELL teachers help their students with:

Instructions: The following questions are specific to the CTE section of the virtual industry tour.

4. Michelle Galls tells us that a bonus of being a Family and Consumer Sciences teacher is:

5. There are many different career paths within Family & Consumer Sciences. Fashion, interior, and graphic design are three of them. Name two more:

Instructions: The following questions are specific to the Math section of the virtual industry tour.

6. Alex Way, statistics teacher at Fremont High School, helps us understand how a teacher might choose a subject and grade level to focus on. How does he tell us he chose Math and High School?

7. What is the benefit and the struggle of having a variety of learners in the classroom?

Instructions: The following questions are specific to the Special Education section of the virtual industry tour.

8. Who does a special education teacher collaborate with?

9. What are three things a special education teacher works on with students that another teacher might not do or spend as much time on?

10. Ms. Jamison views the challenges of teaching special education not only as challenges but also:

Instructions: The following questions are specific to the School Counseling section of the virtual tour.

11. What are two main areas that a school counselor may focus on?

12. Describe at least three of the ideal characteristics of a school counselor.

13. In your own words, describe the job responsibilities of a school counselor.

Instructions: The following questions are specific to the Elementary Education section of the virtual industry tour.

14. In 2022, what was the median annual salary of an elementary school teacher in Nebraska?

15. Teachers must be good communicators. List at least three groups of people who elementary teachers collaborate and communicate with?

Instructions: The following questions are specific to the Secondary Education section of the virtual industry tour.

16. In 2022, what was the median annual salary of a secondary school teacher in Nebraska?

17. List at least three rewards of teaching at the secondary level.

Instructions: The following questions are specific to the Postsecondary Education section of the virtual industry tour.

18. What are at least three of the adjectives that Ms. Ramirez-Rodgers used to describe her job title?

19. What is one reward of being an educator at the postsecondary level?

20. Based on the video AND your own observations, how is college different from high school:

Instructions: The following questions are specific to the Corporate Training and Development section of the virtual industry tour.

21. Describe the job responsibilities of a Learning and Development Consultant (at Gallup):

22. Compare and contrast the career of a Learning and Development Consultant with a traditional pre-K through postsecondary classroom teacher?

23. What is the average annual salary of a Training and Development Specialist in Nebraska?

Instructions: Respond to this question after watching all ten sections of the virtual industry tour.

24. Which of the careers introduced in the virtual industry tour best fits your skill set and interests? Explain.