

Harvest of the Month

RADISHES

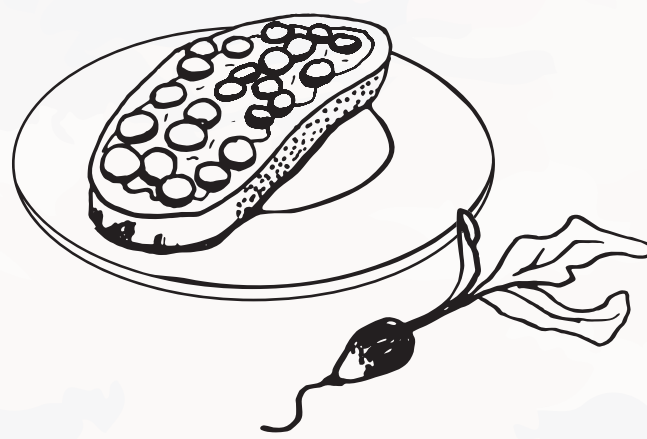

DID YOU KNOW -

Radishes grow underground like carrots or beets.

HISTORICAL TIDBIT -

Noche de Rabones or "Night of the Radishes" takes place annually on December 23rd in Oaxaca, Mexico. Radishes are carved into elaborate figures and designs and celebrations are held.

BREAKFAST OF CHAMPIONS -

French Breakfast is the name of a type of radish easily identified by its elongated roots and hot pink and white color. In France, a popular morning snack is thinly sliced radish, served atop a slice of buttered bread.

