

The Nebraska Academy of Sciences, with NATS, UNK-Biology, and the Prairie Project present a unique opportunity to witness the 2024 Great Crane Migration

Teacher Workshop: Lesson Plans-Prescribed Fire and Sandhill Cranes

$20-Includes 4.5 hours Professional Growth Continuing Education Credits

9:30 a.m.-Introductions

9:40 a.m.- Rowe Sanctuary Presentation

10:00 a.m.-Background Presentations

- History and Background on Cranes
- Prescribed Fire and Grassland Habitat
- Sandhills Crane Conservation/ Platte River

10:45 a.m.- Presentations on Lesson Plans

12:00 N-Lunch (sponsored by Prairie Project)

-table discussions and networking

1:00 p.m.- Break

1:10 p.m.- Details of modified lesson plans and working with presenters and other support faculty for those lesson plans

1:50 p.m.-Debrief, Wrap Up, fill out surveys

At 2:00 p.m.-Participants can leave or:

NAS Field Experiences (Field Tours, UNK Ornithologists explain Prairie Biology and Crane Basics; Dinner and Private Blind Tour of Sandhill Cranes)

$75-Includes dinner, blind fee and lectures

Field Tours:

- Burn Locations at Rowe
- Restored Grasslands at Rowe
- Crane Viewing Opportunities prior to the blind tour

Blind Tour

5:00 Dinner at the Rowe Audubon Sanctuary with Ornithologist led lectures

6:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m.-Blinds

March 21, 2025

Register here

