

Priority Pyramid

Prioritizing Instructional Services

It is unlikely that you will be able to serve all of your students with instructional services. Use the pyramid to prioritize the groups of kiddos that you should be serving with instructional services.

*Start from the tip of the pyramid and work your way up.

* The size of the section represents the number of students that meet that population out of the total.