Empower educators. Elevate learning. Lead with impact.

What is the Certified Facilitator Program?

The Certified Facilitator Program is designed to support the needs of districts across the state by training and providing resources to key stakeholders who in turn can deliver those materials and training directly to districts. The Certified Facilitator Program features the following:

- Self-paced online resources for capacity building in assessment product knowledge
- Unlimited online access to facilitator/workshop materials once Certified Facilitators certify in content
- On-demand content, question-and-answer webinars, and Certified Facilitator content-specific webinars
- Monthly eNewsletters
- Onsite and distance-learning training for each workshop certification
- Dedicated support from NWEA® Professional Learning to support the work

Program highlights

- Leadership development: Strengthen your skills in adult learning, facilitation, and coaching.
- Hands-on training: Learn by doing with real-time feedback and practice opportunities.
- Exclusive resources: Access ready-to-use NWEA slide decks, Facilitation Guides, and facilitation tools.
- Ongoing support: Stay connected through coaching and a statewide professional network.
